

TAX & ACCOUNTING

What Makes Gordon & Associates P.A., CPAs Unique Among Accounting Firms?

Like most accounting firms, Gordon & Associates provides independent, objective historical financial information for individuals and small business owners. What differentiates us is our ability to use this information to help individuals plan for their future and to help small business owners run their businesses more effectively and efficiently. Since our Tax & Accounting Division is intimately familiar with your situation, it can uncover areas that are not performing to your expectations and, with the assistance of our Business Advisory Services Division and Gordon & Associates Financial Advisors, Inc., find practical ways to improve them.

When the Tax & Accounting Division looks at your issues, it looks at your entire organization, not just in the area that the concern was identified. We utilize this holistic approach because we can assist you more effectively by looking at the whole system before analyzing the parts independently.
